PRODUCTION:

Created using the finest rums from the island of Trinidad and artfully blended with exotic spices such as vanilla, cinnamon, nutmeg, cardamom, aniseed and coriander. It is dark and flavorful while delivering the signature long, smooth finish.

TASTING NOTE:

Ron de Jeremy Spiced shows the dark reddish brown color of cinnamon bark. Aromas of rich vanilla, cinnamon and nutmeg are forward yet pleasantly soft. The initial taste is of vanilla and caramel, with enough spice to work well in cola or classic cocktails. The signature ending is long and smooth.
